

Healthcare Interoperability Environment

1. Emergency services monitor local hospital availability.
2. As EMS encounters patients, data is collected and shared on the triage, treatment, and/or transport.
3. Routing decisions are relayed based on hospital availability and patients are transported and tracked.
4. Patient information is transmitted to each destination emergency department.
5. Confirmation of patient arrival to emergency and dispatch centers.