

There must be at least two participants in a joint action. Each participant plays a role in the joint action.

Actions performed by participants in their roles within the joint action