Re: Ethical Trading; transparency and anti-corruption laws

Ladies and Gentlemen:

In connection with [contract name / your participation in OASIS], we are pleased to confirm and warrant that OASIS Open, a not-for-profit corporation organized in the United States in the state of Pennsylvania (OASIS), and its affiliates including the OASIS Open Europe Foundation (a Dutch Stichting) and the OASIS Open Development Foundation (a Delaware series limited liability company) (collectively OASIS and Affiliates):

- has complied and shall at all times comply with all relevant anti-corruption laws and regulations of general application or specifically applicable to activities of OASIS and Affiliates, i.e., those regarding to the prevention and detection of risks of corruption and influence-peddling;
- whether directly or via third parties, shall comply with all relevant anti-bribery laws and regulations of general application or specifically applicable to activities of OASIS and Affiliates; i.e., shall not propose to or accept from any person any offer, promise, donation, gift or benefit of any kind which would be linked to a misuse by that person of their real or supposed influence with a view to obtaining, for itself or for others, a distinction, a job, a contract or any other favorable decision; and shall not solicit or accept for itself any offer, promise, donation, gift or benefit of any kind, for the purpose of misusing its influence with a view to making or obtaining any favorable decision; and
- has complied and shall at all times comply with all anti-slavery laws.

Please feel free to direct any questions to the undersigned or the Executive Director of OASIS.

Kind regards
